Dade County Federal Credit Union has signed an agreement outsourcing its contract management and negotiation services to Maple Street, Inc. Dade County Federal Credit Union becomes the ninth credit union that has outsourced contract management and negotiation services to Maple Street.

“We had so many contracts and so many hands touching them that we were having trouble effectively managing our contracts. By outsourcing contract management to Maple Street we can centralize contract management to get better control and visibility of our contracts,” says Marla Ferreira, Vice President – Asset Management for Dade County Federal Credit Union. “We also plan to use Maple Street to outsource much of our contract negotiation to get the best deals possible with our vendors.”

“Signing an industry leading credit union like Dade County is an important step in the development of understanding how contract management can help control costs for credit unions,” says Michael Crofts, President of Maple Street, Inc. “We’ll be able to reduce Dade County’s costs, proving the value of our service and helping the credit union at the same time.”

Dade County Federal Credit Union is a community based credit union located at 1500 NW 107th Avenue, Miami, Florida 33172. The credit union currently has approximately $404,048,000 in assets and 90,138 members. Maple Street, Inc. is located in Longwood, Florida and provides profit improvement and contract management services to credit unions across the United States.
